Choose ONE of the following prompts.

Prompt (A): Read the following statement about adolescents’ problems.

Teenagers have several differences with their parents. Sometimes they experience bad times and face problems.

Based on the above statement, write a well-organized essay of 150-200 words in which you explain two causes and two effects of problems or conflicts that teenagers may face with their parents.

Provide an outline and an appropriate title. As you develop your essay, provide sufficient details and examples to support your ideas. Revise and proofread your essay.

Prompt (B): Read the following statement about family relationships

Good communication builds strong family relations.

Based on the statement above, write a narrative essay about a problem you (or a person you know) had with your parents (e.g. misunderstanding, choosing friends, overusing social media...). Copy the graphic organizer and then fill it in with appropriate information. Develop your narrative essay by providing sufficient details about the problem, people involved, and the solution. Your essay should be between 150-200 words. Remember to revise and proofread your essay.
